28th. Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Bishop's Annual Appeal

begins today Sunday, October 14.

Doing the little things in life in Christ's name can be a great way for us to take the steps necessary to become a better disciple. St. Therese Lisieux once said, "You know well enough that our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, nor even at their difficulty, but at the love at which we do them."

Although the diocese has asked us to raise $12,633. our goal will be $17,308. which represents $1. more than what was pledged last year. 50% of any money raised over $12,633. will be returned to St. Mark to assist us in running our parish.

As in the past, please be generous.

Vocation Corner Twenty - Eighth Sunday of the Year - B

A Vocation View: If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that one dream. Jesus asks for total dedication, promising in return rewards that no one else can promise: "Go and sell everything you own ... then come; follow me."

Prayer: That those chosen to leave all and follow Jesus more closely in the priesthood or consecrated life will respond with the wisdom and understanding given by the Holy Spirit, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Invited to leave everything to follow Christ, you, consecrated men and women, no longer define your life by family, by profession, or by earthly interests, and you choose the Lord as your only identifying mark. Thus you acquire a new family identity. Homily of Pope John Paul II, Jubilee of Consecrated Life, February 2, 2000

The rich young man in today's Gospel reading was sad because Jesus told him to sell his things and give his money to the poor. Jesus said that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. But all things are possible with God!
Can you find the way from the camel through the needle?
